

Commonwealth Corps
Service Position
Description

826 Boston
Commonwealth Corps Writer's Room Coordinator

The mission of the Commonwealth Corps is to engage Massachusetts residents of all ages and backgrounds in service to strengthen communities, address unmet community needs, and increase volunteerism.

Commonwealth Corps members with 826 Boston will serve 10.5 months in a full-time capacity. What they have in common is a desire to put their talents and ideas to use in the service of their communities and the Commonwealth.

826 Boston is a nonprofit youth writing and tutoring center located in Roxbury whose mission is to support students ages 6 to 18 with their creative and expository writing skills, and to help teachers inspire their students to write. In its fourth year of partnership with Commonwealth Corps, 826 Boston seeks a Writers' Room Coordinator to support the expansion of its highly successful Writers' Room Program. 826 Boston's second Writers' Room is set to launch at the Jeremiah Burke High School in the Grove Hall neighborhood of Dorchester.

826 Boston's high-impact programs are based on the understanding that great leaps in learning can occur with one-on-one attention, and that writing skills are fundamental to future success. 826 Boston is part of a national network of youth writing centers founded by the award-winning author Dave Eggers. Voted one of the top 30 companies to work for by Good Magazine, the 826 network received the 2013 American Literacy Prize for its pioneering work to eradicate illiteracy in the United States.
