About the Greater Boston Bigfoot Research Institute

826 Boston's main tutoring center in Egleston Square is located behind a whimsical storefront: The Greater Boston Bigfoot Research Institute. Four days a week, this center hums with activity. Students work one-on-one with trained tutors in After-School Tutoring to complete homework, read aloud, and embark on publishing their writing. Two days a week, we also offer Evening Tutoring for middle and high school students and Storytelling & Bookmaking field trips for Boston Public School students.

Public Transportation:

The center is a 10-minute walk from the Stony Brook and Jackson Square stops on the Orange Line. It is less than a minute walk from the 44, 42, 22, and 29 buses.

Parking:

Non-metered street parking is available on Washington Street and cross streets. There is also a two-hour municipal lot directly across from the center on Washington Street.

Accessibility

The center's main entrance has no steps or stairs, and the entire center is contained to the first floor. Two single-occupancy, unisex/gender-neutral restrooms are available. A water fountain, refrigerator, and microwave are also available for volunteer use.

Check-In Procedure:

Enter the center using the double doors on the corner of Washington Street and Walnut Park Street. A doorbell is located to the right of the doors. Once inside, head through the store and into the main tutoring center to check in with an 826 Boston staff or service member.
